CLINICAL FOCUS

Dr. Alponat's practice covers a broad range of general surgery. In anorectal surgery he treats hemorrhoids, anal fissures and other anorectal diseases. His digestive system work includes cholecystitis treatment, surgery for gallbladder and biliary tract cancers, colorectal cancer surgery and other digestive system surgery.

Treatment decisions depend on the individual diagnosis, the findings of examination and imaging, and the patient's general health. Not every condition requires surgery, and the options discussed will reflect the specific clinical situation.
