CLINICAL FOCUS

Dr. İkizler plans and oversees radiotherapy for adults with a range of solid tumors. Her areas of expertise include head and neck cancers, brain tumors, gastrointestinal oncology and breast cancer.

Her published work reflects these interests. She has co-authored studies on treatment response and survival in patients with non-small cell lung cancer treated curatively, on infections in lung cancer patients receiving radiotherapy (published in Cancer Detection and Prevention and Lung Archives), and on factors influencing cosmetic...
