CLINICAL FOCUS

Anesthesiology covers the assessment of patients before surgery, the planning and delivery of anesthesia during a procedure, and monitoring in the recovery period. Dr. Ayyıldız's practice in this field is complemented by his training and experience in reanimation and intensive care, which involve the support of patients whose vital...

His published and presented work reflects these interests. He was a co-author of a poster on intensive care nurses' knowledge of the prevention of ventilator-associated pneumonia, presented at the 16th International Intensive Care Symposium in İstanbul in 2007, and of a journal article on intensive care nurses' clinical research on...
