CLINICAL FOCUS

Dr. Sümer's clinical work centers on bariatric surgery and the surgical management of obesity, as well as endocrine surgery and the treatment of thyroid disorders. He also treats pancreatic, liver and biliary tract diseases.

His areas of expertise further include inflammatory bowel disease, including Crohn's disease and ulcerative colitis, and the treatment of hemorrhoids and other anorectal conditions. The choice of treatment in each case depends on the individual patient's diagnosis, general health and previous treatment.
