CLINICAL FOCUS

Dr. Karakoç's clinical interests center on urogynecology, including urinary incontinence and bladder health. She also sees women with menopause-related concerns and offers treatment of sexual dysfunction. Another area of her practice is endometriosis treatment.

In the field of reproductive health, her areas of expertise include egg freezing and the assessment of low ovarian reserve (AMH). The suitability of any particular approach depends on the individual patient's history, findings and goals, and is determined after clinical evaluation.
