CLINICAL FOCUS

The Emergency Service is the department to which patients turn when a medical problem is acute or cannot wait for a routine appointment. In this setting, Dr. Özçelik assesses patients presenting with urgent medical needs. His work involves taking the patient's history, asking about current symptoms and their onset, performing a clinical examination and considering any information that is already available, such as previous...

Because emergency presentations vary widely, the care provided is directed at the individual patient's immediate needs rather than at a fixed list of procedures. Dr. Özçelik places emphasis on clear communication, explaining what has been found during the assessment and what the proposed course of action is, so that patients and their families understand the situation as it develops.

INTERNATIONAL PATIENTS

Dr. Özçelik speaks Turkish and English, and interpreters can be arranged for patients who prefer to communicate in another language. For international patients, the hospital's international patient team coordinates the collection of prior reports and imaging, for example MRI, CT, X-ray or ultrasound reports, laboratory and pathology results, operative notes and discharge summaries, and...
