CLINICAL FOCUS

Dr. Hemşinlioğlu's work centers on inpatient medical care. Her role is to look after patients who have been admitted to the hospital, whether for medical treatment, observation or recovery after a procedure. This begins with medical assessment: reviewing the patient's history, current complaints and existing findings, and carrying out a clinical examination in order to...

A further part of her work is inpatient monitoring. Patients in hospital are followed on an ongoing basis so that changes in their condition can be recognized and addressed in a timely way. Dr. Hemşinlioğlu also focuses on care coordination, which involves communicating with the other physicians, nurses and hospital teams involved in a patient's treatment so that the different...
