CLINICAL FOCUS

In the emergency setting, Dr. Gün assesses and manages acute presentations that require prompt evaluation. These include trauma care, airway obstruction, acute hypoxia, and drowning emergencies, as well as advanced life support for patients with life-threatening conditions.

Outside the emergency department, Dr. Gün offers a range of non-surgical aesthetic and regenerative applications. These include botulinum toxin applications, platelet-rich plasma (PRP) applications, mesotherapy, and microneedle radiofrequency, which may be used in facial, hair, stretch mark, and cellulite treatments.
