CLINICAL FOCUS

Dr. Karaca's clinical practice covers a range of general surgical conditions and procedures. In endocrine surgery, his areas of expertise include thyroid surgery. In digestive system surgery, he evaluates and treats patients requiring colorectal surgery, including those with anorectal diseases and rectal prolapse.

His practice further includes oncological surgery and mastectomy. Each case is assessed individually, and the suitability of any surgical procedure depends on the patient's diagnosis, imaging and laboratory findings, overall health and prior treatments. Where appropriate, Dr.
