CLINICAL FOCUS

Dr. Keleş evaluates and treats a range of benign gynecologic conditions. These include menstrual irregularities, premenstrual syndrome (PMS), menstrual pain, Bartholin cyst and sexually transmitted infections. He also sees patients with painful intercourse (dyspareunia) and offers sexual dysfunction treatment.

In reproductive and pregnancy care, Dr. Keleş assesses women with fertility and infertility concerns and manages ectopic pregnancy. He provides pregnancy care, including epidural childbirth. His practice also covers menopause and urogynecology, with attention to urinary incontinence and bladder health.
