CLINICAL FOCUS

Ebubekir Korkmaz works in the field of physical medicine and rehabilitation, with spine health as his subspecialty area. His day-to-day work centers on rehabilitation care and spine-related care. In practice this means supporting patients whose complaints or functional limitations are linked to the spine, and contributing to rehabilitation programs that are planned according to each patient's clinical picture.

Because spine-related complaints and rehabilitation needs vary widely, the appropriate approach depends on the individual assessment of each patient, including any existing diagnoses, imaging findings and previous treatments. Patients whose condition involves persistent pain may also wish to read the general information on chronic pain treatment available on this site, which describes the broader range of services offered...
