CLINICAL FOCUS

Dr. Bakiu's clinical work focuses on inpatient care. This includes the assessment of hospitalized patients, which involves reviewing the medical history, current symptoms and findings, evaluating the results of investigations carried out in the hospital, and identifying changes in a patient's condition that may need attention.

A further part of his work is clinical follow-up. Patients admitted to the hospital are reviewed regularly so that their response to treatment can be monitored, medications and supportive measures can be adjusted where appropriate, and any concerns raised by the patient or the care team can be addressed.
