CLINICAL FOCUS

Dr. Toku's areas of expertise cover a broad range of emergency presentations. In burn treatment, this includes the initial assessment of the extent and depth of the injury and early wound management. In trauma care, his role involves the rapid evaluation of injured patients and the coordination of urgent interventions.

He also manages environmental emergencies, including drowning and acute hypoxia, where restoring adequate oxygenation is the immediate priority, and airway obstruction, which may require urgent measures to secure breathing.
