CLINICAL FOCUS

Dr. Seyrek evaluates and treats a broad range of cancers within medical oncology. His areas of expertise include breast cancer, lung and thoracic cancers, colorectal cancer and other gastrointestinal cancers, liver cancer, and kidney and adrenal cancer.

In hematologic and soft-tissue oncology, his work covers lymphoma and sarcomas. He also has expertise in cellular therapies. The suitability of any treatment depends on the individual diagnosis, stage and general health, and is determined after clinical assessment and review of the relevant test results.
