CLINICAL FOCUS

Ezgi Nur Çiçek supports the care of patients with musculoskeletal and spinal complaints. Her areas of expertise include sports injuries and knee injuries, where rehabilitation is planned around the patient's symptoms, functional needs, and recovery goals.

Spinal conditions form a further part of her practice. These include cervical disc herniation, lumbar disc herniation, reduced cervical lordosis, and lumbar hypolordosis, conditions affecting the alignment and structures of the neck and lower back. In addition, she works with patients with fibromyalgia and contributes to pain management within the Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation service.
