CLINICAL FOCUS

In obstetrics, Dr. Güçlü's areas of expertise include epidural birth and water birth. Expectant mothers can discuss these approaches with her, and the suitability of any birth option is considered on an individual basis in light of the pregnancy and the mother's health.

Dr. Güçlü additionally sees patients with vaginismus, an involuntary tightening of the vaginal muscles that can make examination or intercourse painful or difficult, and she offers vaginal tightening and vaginal whitening procedures.
