CLINICAL FOCUS

Dr. Can's practice centers on women's health across different stages of life. In the area of menopause, she evaluates and manages menopause-related concerns. In the area of urinary incontinence and bladder health, she assesses symptoms and discusses the options that may be suitable for each patient.

Her gynecological work further includes sexually transmitted diseases and HPV, as well as the evaluation and management of ectopic pregnancy. In obstetrics, Dr. Can provides care for women who are considering childbirth options, including epidural birth and water birth.
