CLINICAL FOCUS

The clinical work of Dr. Toköz centers on the surgical assessment and treatment of cardiovascular diseases. Within cardiothoracic surgery and cardiovascular surgery, he evaluates patients whose heart or major vessel conditions may require an operation, reviews their existing findings and discusses whether a surgical approach is...

A second part of his practice is vascular surgery for vascular diseases and venous diseases. This includes the assessment of conditions affecting the arteries and veins outside the heart, and the planning of vascular surgical treatment when it is indicated.
