CLINICAL FOCUS

A central part of Dr. Yavuz's practice is the assessment and management of thyroid diseases. This work involves reviewing a patient's symptoms and history, interpreting thyroid function tests and any existing imaging, and discussing the treatment options that may be appropriate for the individual patient.

Dr. Yavuz also sees patients with type 1 diabetes and type 2 diabetes. Care in these conditions generally centers on evaluating blood glucose control, reviewing current medication, and considering long-term management together with the patient.
