CLINICAL FOCUS

Dr. Engin assesses and plans medical oncology care for a range of solid tumors. His areas of expertise include head and neck cancers, soft tissue and bone sarcomas, prostate cancer, ovarian cancer and kidney cancer.

He also cares for patients with lung and other thoracic cancers. In each case, the treatment approach depends on the type and stage of the tumor, previous treatments and the patient's overall condition, and is discussed individually with the patient after a review of the available findings.
