CLINICAL FOCUS

Dr. Deveci's areas of expertise include laryngeal cancer and salivary gland diseases, together with head and neck surgery more broadly. In these conditions, assessment generally involves a careful review of the patient's history, examination findings and any existing imaging or pathology results before the possible treatment pathways are...

Her surgical practice also covers nasal and sinus surgery, adenoid surgery and tonsil surgery, as well as rhinoplasty and prominent ear correction. The suitability of any of these procedures is determined individually after clinical evaluation, and not every patient will be a candidate for surgery;
