CLINICAL FOCUS

Dr. Hatipoğlu evaluates and treats a range of gynecological conditions. Her areas of expertise include menopause care, HPV, sexually transmitted diseases, Bartholin cyst, and pelvic pain and dysfunction. She also sees patients with menstrual concerns and with ectopic pregnancy, a condition that requires timely assessment.

In obstetrics, Dr. Hatipoğlu provides pregnancy follow-up throughout the antenatal period and attends deliveries. Her practice covers several delivery options, including epidural delivery, cesarean section and water birth. The choice of delivery method is discussed with the patient during pregnancy and depends on the course of the pregnancy, the health of mother and baby, and the patient's preferences within what is...
