CLINICAL FOCUS

Dr. Ağaoğlu evaluates and follows children with blood disorders. A large part of her practice involves iron deficiency and other forms of anemia in children. Her published work in this area includes a randomized trial comparing iron hydroxide polymaltose complex with ferrous sulfate in pediatric patients with iron deficiency anemia, and...

In pediatric hematology and oncology she assesses children with leukemia and lymphoma. Her co-authored publications in this field include work on the prognostic significance of NOTCH1 and FBXW7 mutations in pediatric T-ALL and on genetic factors in pediatric de novo acute leukemia.
