CLINICAL FOCUS

Dr. Özkan's practice is focused on radiotherapy, also known as radiation treatment, and on the care of patients with breast cancer. Radiotherapy is one of several treatment options that may be considered for cancer patients, and whether it is appropriate, and in what form, depends on the individual diagnosis, stage and prior treatment.

He has co-authored peer-reviewed publications in journals including Tumori, Hepato-Gastroenterology, Saudi Medical Journal, European Journal of Gynaecological Oncology and Archives of Gynecology and Obstetrics.
