CLINICAL FOCUS

Melis Eda Erkanlı's main area of interest is pelvic pain treatment. Pelvic pain is a sensitive area of care, and her work in this field emphasizes patience, clear communication and individually tailored therapy programs. Patients are assessed in a structured way before a personalized treatment plan is drawn up, and they receive consistent guidance throughout the course of rehabilitation so that exercises and other measures...

More broadly, her practice covers physical medicine and rehabilitation and general physiotherapy. Within the multidisciplinary rehabilitation team, she works with patients whose treatment combines a medical assessment with a physiotherapy program, supporting recovery of function and the gradual return to daily activities. Treatment goals are set together with the patient, and progress is reviewed as part of ongoing follow-up.
