CLINICAL FOCUS

Merve Güvendi's practice is concentrated on cardiopulmonary rehabilitation. In pulmonary rehabilitation, she works with patients who have pulmonary conditions, using respiratory physiotherapy and respiratory function rehabilitation to support breathing and day-to-day activity.

Her approach is assessment-led: the rehabilitation plan is built around the individual patient's current function, medical history and the treatment they have already received. Programs are adjusted over time according to how the patient responds, and the physiotherapy component is delivered in coordination with the treating medical team...
