CLINICAL FOCUS

A large part of Dr. Akagün's practice concerns refractive errors. She assesses and manages myopia, hyperopia and astigmatism, and she also sees patients with glaucoma, a condition that generally requires ongoing monitoring of eye pressure and the optic nerve.

Dr. Akagün also treats inflammatory and surface conditions of the eye, including blepharitis (inflammation of the eyelid margins), conjunctivitis and uveitis. Wilson disease is also listed among her areas of expertise.
