CLINICAL FOCUS

Dr. Kızılıçık's practice centers on anesthesiology and reanimation, including the planning and delivery of anesthesia for patients undergoing surgery and the care of patients who need close monitoring afterward.

Her published research reflects these clinical interests. Topics she has studied with colleagues include postoperative pain relief and opioid consumption in obese patients undergoing sleeve gastrectomy, intra-articular analgesia after arthroscopic meniscectomy, prevention of postoperative nausea and vomiting, propofol injection pain,...
