CLINICAL FOCUS

Dr. Kuzhan's practice includes the medical oncology management of lung and other thoracic cancers as well as brain tumors and lymphoma. In gastrointestinal oncology, he sees patients with stomach cancer and colorectal cancer, including colon cancer and rectal cancer.

He also cares for patients with breast cancer, gynecological cancers such as ovarian cancer and uterine cancer, and prostate cancer. The choice of medical treatment in each case depends on the tumor type, its stage, the findings of the diagnostic work-up and the patient's overall condition, and is discussed with the patient after the...
