CLINICAL FOCUS

Dr. Al's clinical focus is the care of patients who present to the emergency service with urgent health concerns. Emergency service physicians see people whose complaints have developed suddenly or worsened quickly, and the first task is a medical assessment: taking the history as far as the situation allows, examining the patient, and deciding which investigations are needed. On the basis of this assessment, Dr.

Because emergency service covers a broad range of complaints rather than a single organ system, the assessment is guided by the presenting problem. Dr. Al's approach is to establish what is happening, to address the immediate situation, and to make sure the patient understands the findings and what is planned next.

INTERNATIONAL PATIENTS

Dr. Al speaks Turkish and English, so patients traveling from abroad can be understood in either language, and interpreters can be arranged for other languages. The international patient team coordinates the collection of prior reports and imaging — for example MRI, CT, X-ray or ultrasound reports, laboratory and pathology results, operative notes and discharge summaries — arranges...
