HOSPITAL
Acibadem Kozyatagi Hospital, İstanbul

DEPARTMENT
Endocrinology & Metabolism

CLINICAL FOCUS

Dr. Meriçliler's clinical work centers on endocrinology and metabolic diseases. Endocrine disorders involve the glands and hormones that regulate many body functions, and their assessment generally relies on a careful history, clinical examination and laboratory testing, sometimes supported by imaging.

Her areas of expertise also include endocrine surgery. In this context, the endocrinologist typically contributes to the evaluation of patients before and after surgical procedures on endocrine glands, working alongside surgical colleagues.
