CLINICAL FOCUS

Dr. Dinçer's clinical work covers the three fields listed in his profile. In anesthesiology, this includes the anesthetic care of patients undergoing surgical and other procedures, from assessment before the procedure to monitoring during and after it.

His third field is pain management and algology. Having worked as a specialist physician in a Division of Algology, Dr. Dinçer sees patients with pain and discusses possible approaches with them. Where a procedure-based approach is being considered, information on interventional pain management is available on this site.
