CLINICAL FOCUS

Dr. Dişli evaluates and treats patients with a range of cancers. In thoracic oncology, his interests include lung cancer and other thoracic cancers. He also sees patients with head and neck cancers and with breast cancer. Within gastrointestinal oncology, his areas of expertise include stomach cancer, esophageal cancer, pancreatic cancer and colorectal cancer.

His practice further covers urological and gynecological cancers, including bladder cancer, prostate cancer and uterine cancer. As a medical oncologist, his role typically involves reviewing the diagnosis and staging, assessing previous treatments and discussing the systemic treatment options that may be appropriate for the individual patient, in coordination with other...
