CLINICAL FOCUS

Dr. Sezgin's clinical work covers Internal Medicine, Functional Medicine and adult medical assessment. In his Internal Medicine practice he evaluates adult patients presenting with a range of medical concerns, taking into account their history, current symptoms and any available test results before forming an assessment.

Within Functional Medicine, Dr. Sezgin applies a structured approach to adult medical assessment, reviewing the information available for each patient and discussing possible next steps. Recommendations are based on the individual clinical evaluation, and any further investigations or follow-up are considered on a case-by-case basis.
