CLINICAL FOCUS

Dr. Bahadır's listed subspecialties are menopause and the treatment of sexual dysfunction. Her areas of expertise cover the evaluation and management of menopause, sexual dysfunction treatment, and vaginismus, drawing on both her gynecological training and her additional training in sexual therapy and couples therapy.

She also sees patients with menstrual irregularities and sexually transmitted diseases, and her obstetric practice includes cesarean delivery. Whether a particular treatment is appropriate is determined only after a consultation and examination, since the suitable course of care depends on each patient's findings and medical history.
