CLINICAL FOCUS

Dr. Aksöyek's clinical work centers on pediatric surgery, the surgical evaluation and care of infants, children and adolescents. Surgical conditions in children differ from those in adults in their causes, presentation and the way the growing body responds to treatment, so assessment takes into account the child's age, development and overall health before any recommendation...

His second area of expertise is pediatric urology, which addresses conditions of the kidneys, urinary tract and genital organs in children. In this field, as in general pediatric surgery, the approach is to establish the diagnosis, weigh the available options with the family and plan care that is proportionate to the child's condition.
