CLINICAL FOCUS

A central part of Dr. Arıcı's practice is the diagnosis and medical treatment of metabolic disease. This includes the assessment and treatment of type 2 diabetes and prediabetes, as well as the evaluation of patients with obesity and fatty liver disease.

Dr. Arıcı also focuses on thyroid disease treatment, which is her stated subspecialty, and on the investigation and treatment of anemia. More broadly, she provides chronic disease management for patients who need long-term medical supervision of one or more conditions, and she addresses general wellness within the scope of Internal...
