CLINICAL FOCUS

Dr. Başböyük's clinical focus is anesthesia and reanimation care for patients undergoing medical and surgical treatment. This includes the planning and delivery of anesthesia for procedures, monitoring of the patient during the procedure, and care in the recovery period.

His subspecialty interest is intensive care. Patients who require close monitoring or organ support after surgery or during a serious illness may be cared for in the intensive care setting, where anesthesiology and reanimation specialists are involved in ongoing treatment. Dr. Başböyük also takes part in reanimation, which involves the resuscitation and stabilization of patients in acute situations.
