CLINICAL FOCUS

Dr. Tuzcu's work covers the core areas of family medicine. In primary care, she acts as a first point of contact for patients with a wide range of health concerns, offering general health assessment and coordinating further evaluation where it is needed.

She also manages acute illness, assessing new symptoms and deciding on appropriate care, and provides chronic disease management for patients who require regular monitoring and adjustment of treatment over time. Drawing on her years at Kanlica Mother and Child Health and Family Planning Training Center, Dr.
