CLINICAL FOCUS

Dr. Dişel's areas of expertise cover a wide range of cancers as well as anemia. On the oncology side, he provides medical treatment for breast cancer, lung and thoracic cancers, colorectal cancer, gastric cancer, liver cancer, pancreatic cancer, kidney cancer and prostate cancer.

In his oncology work, Dr. Dişel reviews the diagnosis, pathology and imaging findings that describe a patient's disease and discusses the medical treatment options that apply to the individual situation. Where a patient has already received treatment elsewhere, previous therapies and their results form part of this assessment.
