CLINICAL FOCUS

Dr. Turan's clinical practice covers anesthesiology and reanimation, with a particular focus on intensive care. In the intensive care setting he is involved in the treatment of critically ill patients who require close monitoring and organ support, and in advanced life support during acute deterioration.

Pain management is a further area of his practice. Depending on the cause and severity of pain, options may range from medication-based approaches to interventional pain management, and the suitability of any approach is assessed after a clinical evaluation. Dr.
