CLINICAL FOCUS

A central part of Dr. Ünlü's practice is the diagnosis and treatment of thyroid diseases. He also sees patients with metabolic conditions, including type 2 diabetes, prediabetes, obesity and fatty liver disease, and offers metabolic disease diagnosis and treatment.

His areas of expertise further include anaemia, gastritis and upper respiratory tract diseases, as well as geriatric health. For older patients, this may involve reviewing several coexisting conditions and current medications together, and coordinating with other specialists where an internal medicine assessment suggests this is...
