CLINICAL FOCUS

The areas of expertise listed for Dr. Kıvanç are inpatient care, clinical assessment, hospital follow-up, care coordination and family medicine. As an inpatient clinic physician, she is involved in the day-to-day medical care of hospitalized patients.

Care coordination is a central part of this role. Patients admitted to hospital are often seen by several specialists, and an inpatient clinic physician helps keep the overall picture consistent, communicating between departments and following the plan agreed for each patient.
